

Courses relevant to Howardian AONB 2010

The Geology and Scenery of the Howardian Hills

Provider: Workers Educational Association (WEA)

Dates: 5 Tuesdays from 6th April to 4th May

Programme:

Tuesday 6th April Initial Meeting at Pickering Memorial Hall from 1400 to 1600

Tuesday 13th April Field Trip to Hildenley from 1000 to 1600

Tuesday 20th April Field Trip to Sheriff Hutton from 1000 to 1600

Tuesday 27th April Field trip to Hovingham area from 1000 to 1600

Tuesday 6th May Final session at Pickering Memorial Hall from 1400 to 1600

Further Details: David Clark. Tel. 01751 476118. Email. jdsclark@btinternet.com

Notes:

Places are limited (max of 20)

There is no assessment work with this course

Geology and Scenery of the Howardian Hills (Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty)

Provider: The University of Hull (Centre for Employability and Professional Skills) Scarborough Campus

Dates: 4 Wednesdays from to 2nd June to 23rd June

Programme:

Wednesday 2nd June Initial Meeting at University of Hull (Scarborough Campus) from 1400 to 1600

Wednesday 9th June Field Trip – Landscape features from 1000 to 1700

Wednesday 16th June Field Trip – Quarries and Buildings from 1000 to 1700

Wednesday 23rd June Assessment at University of Hull (Scarborough Campus) from 1400

Further Details: CEPS, University of Hull (Scarborough Campus). Tel. 01723 507284

Notes:

Places are limited (max of 10)

This is an assessable course and participants are expected to submit a piece of work and take a practical test to gain 10 credits towards a UFA Certificate (60 points)

Richard Myerscough

01262 672711

r.myerscough@hull.ac.uk